Go Getter

Posted in My Thoughts at 1:37 am by Administrator

If I could re write the past , I would not change a thing

If I could have stopped or slowed down

I'd still speed in the fast lane

A lot of people think this time hurts

But it don't people want to see me fail

I hope they hear this out loud

I won't

My mind is set

I know where I want to be

I'm a go getter I wait for no man to take care of me

I go get my wants plus everything I need I second guess nothing

I just put it all in God's hands

So, I feel jails ok

It was part of Go'd plan

I think about the day I come home will i be Obama with a plan

Or Tookie Williams

before redemption touched his hand

I can be a Pit Bull out of the Cage or the master that walks his dog, unchained

Maybe I'll just kick up my feet it really not hard to see because I'll go get everything God has for me
